the sea and sky, That it

Tigers in the Dome . . .

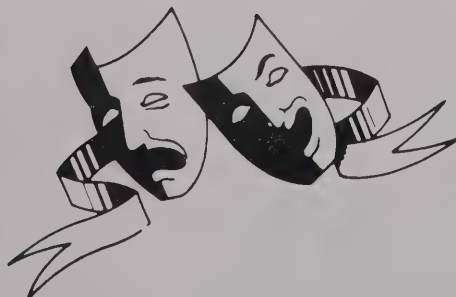

On Tuesday, Dec. 14, 1976, the Tigers made it to the big time. The opponents were the Chalmette Owls, and the place was the New Orleans Super-Dome. The boys played a fine game, however; the final score was in favor of the Owls. The Tiger Cheerleaders also put on a great show. They made an extremely good impression on all who were present, with tumbling, pyramids and other acrobatic acts as well as Terrific Tiger Spirit!!!

B.H.S. at the Opera . . .

Who are these elegantly dressed people? They are just a few of the B.H.S. students who attended the opera, at the Theater of Performing Arts in New Orleans, La. The students, members of the Latin, French, Spanish, and Music classes were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Rene de Montluzin, Mrs. Gloria Dean, and Mr. Thomas (bus driver). This was quite an experience for those students who had never attended an opera before, because they learned that operas are no fat-shrieking women, but plays in which all the lines are sung to beautiful music.

BHS French Club 1976-1977

The French Club enjoyed a variety of activities in addition to its monthly programs. It decorated a car for the Homecoming parade, it entertained two guest speakers who had lived in France, and many of its members attended an opera in New Orleans in the fall.

In the spring the entire club plans a trip to the city to see the Art Museum, exhibits at International House, and Jeanne d'Arc Square. Participation in the State Foreign Language Fair and the National French Contest are also scheduled for late spring.

The 7th annual College Night was held January 6, 1977. The Guidance Department and the National Honor Society sponsored this activity. The following schools were represented: Belhaven, Jackson State, L.S.U., Loyola, Millsaps, Mississippi College, Mississippi State University, Mississippi State University for Women, Pearl River Junior College, Springhill, Tulane, University of Mississippi, University Medical Center, University of New Orleans, University of South Alabama, University of Southern Mississippi, and William Carey College. Many Seniors and some Juniors have made decisions about their future with the help of the college representatives. These students would like to thank Mr. Gibson Carter, the school's Guidance Counselor, for arranging this, and the National Honor Society for preparing signs, refreshments, and helping Mr. Carter in the arrangement of College Night.
